Berlin to host Prague Process Senior Officials Meeting (SOM)

The Federal Republic of Germany and the Ministry of Interior of Poland, as Leading State of the Prague Process, will host the Prague Process Senior Officials' Meeting in Berlin on 28–29 October 2014.

The Senior Officials Meeting will bring together heads of migration services and heads of migration policy departments from the 50 Prague Process participating states. They will discuss the following items related to the Prague Process and the implementation of the Action Plan 2012–2016 adopted in Poznan:

- Preparations of the 3rd Ministerial Conference in 2016: agenda and expected results;
- Definition and method of evaluation of the implementation of the Action Plan 2012–2016;
- Discussion on the results and lessons learned from the Pilot Projects of the Prague Process Targeted Initiative;
- Endorsement of the three new projects under the Prague Process Targeted Initiative.

The Prague Process is a migration dialogue established under the Czech Presidency in 2009. It gathers 50 states, who have committed themselves to cooperate more closely on migration management. With the support of the European Commission, The Prague Process has implemented a number of pilot activities in the area of legal and illegal migration, migration and development and asylum. The Process also supported the development of an extensive knowledge base on migration management and flows in the Eurasian region.

Rabat Process Senior Official's Meeting (SOM) Approaching Fast
